

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Director, Office of Oil, Gas, and Coal Supply Statistics
Energy Information Administration (EIA)

Position Number: DOE-HQ-EI-15-00696-SES

Location: Washington, DC

Compensation: $121,956.00 to $183,300.00

Grade: ES-0340-00

Closing Date: October 5, 2015

Overview:

The mission of the Energy Department is to ensure America's security and prosperity by addressing its energy, environmental and nuclear challenges through transformative science and technology solutions.

The U.S. Energy Information Administration (EIA) is the statistical and analytical agency within the U.S. Department of Energy. EIA is the nation's premier source of energy information and, by law, its data, analyses, and forecasts are independent of approval by any other officer or employee of the U.S. Government.

As the Director, Office of Oil, Gas, and Coal Supply Statistics, you will:

- Oversee and plan the EIA data collection program.
- Implement the transformation of existing legacy data collection processes to a modern, centralized collection system designed to handle all energy data collections throughout OES.
- Develop and implement technical and communication strategies for coordinating, collaborating, and communicating with data respondents as surveys are transformed and collected in the future.
